

C19th plan of Antwerp

Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge.
 Antwerp (Antwerpen.) Anvers.

London: Baldwin & Cradock, 1836. Original outline colour. Steel-engraving. Dissected and laid on linen, folded into buckram covers, titled in gilt, as issued. 345 x 400mm.

£60

Detailed town plan, with elevations of the most important buildings under the map. Above the map is a prospect of the town 'From a print in the British Museum'. On the right side of the map is a 'Plan of the Scheldt, & the Forts from Antwerp to Lillo'. Usually this map appeared in the SDUK atlas: however this example was issued as a folding map, probably for the use of a tourist.
