

18th century illustration of the constellation Ursa Minor

THOMAS, Corbinianus.
Ursa Minor.

Frankfurt, 1730. Original colour. 120 x 135mm.

£280

Ursa Minor (the Little Bear), the constellation containing Polaris, the northern Pole Star. It was engraved by Johann Christoph Berndt for the celestial atlas 'Mercurii Philosophici Firmamentum Firmianum', named for Thomas's patron, Leopold Anton von Firmian, Archbishop of Salzburg. Corbinianus Thomas (1694-1767), a Benedictine monk, was Professor of Mathematics and Theology at the University of Salzburg. His star atlas was first published in 1730 at Frankfurt, with a second edition at Augsburg the following year. He used an odd system for nomenclature: Greek letter for the star, Roman numeral for the magnitude and Arabic numeral for the star catalogue reference.
