

17th century map of southern Russia in fine original colour

BLAEU, Johannes.

Russiae Vulgo Moscovia, Pars Australis. Auctore Isaaco Massa.

Amsterdam, c.1650, French text edition. Original colour. 390 x 520mm.

£600

An attractive map of Southern Russia, marking Moscow, Ukraine and the Sea of Azov. There are decorative cartouches for the title and scale, and a third with the Russian Imperial eagle flanked by huntsmen wearing furs and bearing weapons.

Stock ID :14507