

17th century road map of northern Italy

FURTTENBACH, Joseph.

Ein neue ganz nützliche chorographische Wegweisung, von und zu den namhafftesten Orten Italiae.

Ulm: Jonan Saur, 1627. 275 x 280mm.

£500

A rare map of Italy north of Rome marking the routes between the main towns, with distances. It is decorated with finely-engraved sea monsters, galleys and galleons, and two large compass roses. Furtttenbach (1591-1667), the author of several influential architectural treatises, spent a decade living in Italy (including a stay at Genoa).

Stock ID :19970