

A miniature double-hemisphere world.

SANSON, Nicolas.

Mappe-Monde ou Carte Generale du Globe Terrestre..

Venice: Sebastiano Coleti, 1735. Coloured. 150 x 170mm.

£600

A double-hemisphere of the world, after Sanson, published in 'Metodo per Istudiare la Geografia'. Set in a background of clouds, the title is on a banner above the map, with allegorical figures representing the continents underneath. California is shown as an island; Australia is shown in one hemisphere and 'Carpentaria' and New Zealand in the other.
