

18th century map of Corsica

LOTTER, Tobias Conrad.

L'isle de Corse avec les differents districts, appartenante à La Republique de Genes, mais divisée et soulevée depuis plusieurs années.

Augsburg, c.1760. Original body colour with additions. 600 x 510mm.

£600

A beautiful map of the island, embellished with a cartouche representing the agricultural wealth of the island, including wool, food and wine. At the time Corsica was a part of the Republic of Genova. Engraved by G.F. Lotter Jr., the son of the publisher.

Stock ID :22737