A movie poster for Charlie Chaplin's 'The Great Dictator' (1940) dubbed into French as 'Le Dictateur'. drawn by illustrator and designer Léo Kouper (1926 -2021). When Chaplin's films were re-released in France by Parafrance Films in 1970's, Kouper was called upon to create new designs for almost all of his feature films - including Le Dictateur. While made in France for French releases, the designs were so successful that they were re-used in the USA. These posters were a pivotal moment in Kouper's career, earning him international fame.
